Community Service Scholarship

About the Award

The Lakeland Children's Center, a licensed not for profit organization. Our mission is to provide an enriching environment which will promote positive experience through socialization and assist in the growth and development of each child. Lakeland Children's Center (LCC) focuses on creating a safe and nurturing atmosphere where each child is encouraged to pursue his/her own interests, develop friendships and interpersonal skills and grow in confidence. We are dedicated to meeting the needs of both children and parents for quality before and after school care.

Application Information

Eligibility Criteria: Awarded to a student who has attended Lakeland Children's Center and can demonstrate a commitment to our community. Applicants must exhibit how their actions have positively influenced the lives of others living and/or working in our community.

Amount: One award of $1,000 will be presented annually to qualified applicants.

Application Information, Requirements and Deadline:

1. Completed application
2. A 500 word essay describing how your contributions to our community have benefited the well-being of others living along-side us.
3. A high school transcript, although there is no minimum GPA requirement.
4. Three letters of recommendation. One must be from a teacher, and two from members of our community.
